About the Author

Shaifaly Sangal drove to her spiritual center on March 14, 2024, she experienced a profound moment. In the quiet of her car, a voice whispered to her, urging her to write a book on Ho'oponopono success stories. She was struck by the clarity of the message. There was no such book, yet the idea resonated deeply within her.
Upon arriving at the center, she felt a surge of gratitude and acceptance. She knew this inspiration came from a higher source.
