
100 Cases in Counselling Psychology

Author: Prachiti J.

₹699 ISBN: 9788196918873

This book will provide insight to the students of regular and distance education learning BA, MA, M.Sc. Psychology and social work regarding the internship as well as during counselling practice. First chapter deals with case study method, then format for the same is added, while other chapters mainly focus on different types of case studies. At the end, it includes list of different psychometric tests used.

Contents | Acknowledgements | Preface |

Case Studies in Clinical Psychology

Short Cases

Online Counselling Cases Child Guidance Cases 1 to 5

Cases of Addiction Abuse Cases 6 To 11

Clinical Cases/Medical

About the Author

Prachiti J., B. P. Th., NET NTA, SET, M. Sc. Psychology, M.A.Clinical Psychology, PGD in Forensic Psychology and Criminal Profiling, PGDHM,DCC Diploma in Clinical Counselling, CAFE, CIG, CCHG, DNHE, FINR, FOR, FCR, FICN. The present author is well versed in different disciplines including Psychology & Physiotherapy. It encompasses Clinical Psychology, Forensic Psychology & Criminal Profiling, Child Guidance, HIV and Family Education, Human Genetics, Neurological Rehabilitation, Clinical Nutrition, Life Skills and Oncology. She has a rich experience in Post Graduation, Teaching and Counselling.